

The Insurance Summit 2014

Insurance - The Next Frontier

Insurance - The Next Frontier

The insurance industry is facing major changes due to new regulatory regimes, macroeconomic uncertainty, digitalisation and big data, a looming talent gap and globalisation. Insurance companies need to understand this wave of change, innovating quickly and adapting efficiently.

What will the role of insurance be in tomorrow's society?

What will the insurance business look like in the future?

What do insurers expect from regulators and vice versa?

What lessons can the industry learn from emerging markets?

To find out what the industry experts think don't miss The Insurance Summit 2014. Join over 150 senior executives to discuss the key strategic issues facing the industry.

The Insurance Summit brings together a unique mix of insurers, regulators, policymakers, customer representatives and key stakeholders from inside and outside the sector, and reveals how an entire industry will change assessing the major challenges and opportunities ahead.
